The Service is intended for academic institutions, corporations and other organizations and their associated representatives and employees.

Please read these Terms of Use carefully before using the Service. If you do not agree to abide by these Terms of Use, please do not use the Service. By accessing and using the Service, you accept and agree to be bound by these Terms of Use and by any other terms of use, policies or documents referred to herein, such as ACI’s Privacy Policy and, when applicable, the iHub Terms of Sale.

ACI reserves the right to update, modify or replace any provisions of these Terms of Use, with or without notice to you, at its sole discretion. Your access and use of the Service will be subject to the current version of the Terms of Use posted on the Service and in effect at the time of your access or use. It is your responsibility to check the Terms of Use periodically for changes.

These Terms of Use govern your access and use of the Service, regardless of your location and regardless of the device with which you access and use the Service, and they apply to all users of the Service, including, without limitation, users who are ACI Members, World Preferred Partners, browsers and/or subscribers.

Use of the Service

ACI grants you a single user, non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable, limited license to access and use the Service and the ACI Content (as defined below) made available through the Service in accordance with these Terms of Use.

ACI may display, transmit, communicate, make available or otherwise allow you to access via the Service certain information, data, statistics, algorithms, models, ratings, scores, materials, presentations, documents, reports, research, articles, text, data, graphics, images, pictures, icons, videos, data compilations, software, interfaces, computer codes, designs and/or other content (collectively, the “ACI Content”). You acknowledge that certain ACI Content may be made available to you, subject to the acceptance of additional terms and conditions, including but not limited to, the payment of related access fees or subscription fees as set forth in the Service in accordance with the iHub Terms of Sale.

You acknowledge and agree that the ACI Content is licensed to you, not sold. You also acknowledge and agree that the ACI Content is for your use only, within the academic institution, corporation, or other organization to which you are attached to, and it is not intended for commercial exploitation. You are strictly prohibited from sharing, forwarding, copying, providing copies of, selling, reselling, leasing, renting, distributing, publishing, transmitting, licensing, or sublicensing any of the ACI Content to any third party, including without limitation, to the consultants and service providers of your institution, corporation, or other organization.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, you may create and develop within the academic institution, corporation or organization to which you are attached to, your own statistics, algorithms, models, ratings, scores, materials, presentations, documents, reports, research, articles, videos, data compilations or other content (collectively, “Your Content”) that include part of the ACI Content as follows: (i) airport rankings and scores published by ACI;

and/or (ii) aggregated raw data provided by ACI on a regional level or on a global basis, but in no event shall Your Content include any raw data provided by ACI Content on an airport level without the prior written consent of ACI, which ACI may refuse or condition in its sole discretion. If any provision of these Terms of Use is determined to be illegal, inapplicable, or unenforceable by applicable law or a court of competent jurisdiction, such determination will not affect the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions of these Terms of Use.

The failure to exercise or enforce any provision of these Terms of Use will not constitute a waiver of the right to subsequently exercise or enforce such provision or any other provisions of these Terms of Use.
